EDITORIAL

Alésia and the Seine, two prestigious names that combine History and Geography, Time and Space.

From the flow of the Seine River, which starts at the limits of the Venarey-Les Laumes district, to the site of the Battle of Alésia which was, beyond the scenes of battle, the ancient signal of the birth of Europe, our sweet land lies waiting for you. Castles, churches, abbeys are strewn over our territory, leaving traces of the people who have shaped the land over the centuries. Our territory was and still is one of many exchanges – commercial trade, cultural and human exchanges. Today, many artists, sculptors, painters, photographers, or film-makers, still find inspiration in our valleys. The MuséoParc Alesia is ready to show you one of the most important battles in the history of France. You will be charmed by the Bussy-Rabutin Castle, and the Burgundy Canal will invite you to stroll or ride a bike along its banks. Flavigny-sur-Ozerain, ranked as one of the most beautiful villages in France, will charm you with its mysteries and the scent of its famous “anis-seed” which often floats in the air of its streets.

So don't hesitate any longer! Come and discover the Land of Alésia and the Seine, its rich historical legacy, its wonderful landscapes and the savoir-faire of its local craftsmen and producers. Take advantage of the fun outdoor and indoor sports activities (bathing, hiking, rock climbing, tennis, golf, squash and fishing) and cultural activities (concerts, shows and exhibits) that are at your disposal.

I hope you will enjoy the quality of accommodation, restaurants, crafts and shops of the area I wish you a pleasant stay in the Land of Alésia and the Seine, in the Côte d'Or, in Burgundy-Franche-Comté!

Patrick Molinoz,

Mayor of Venarey-Les Laumes

President of the Local Council Community of the Land of Alésia and the Seine,

Vice-president of the Burgundy-Franche-Comté region.

BUSSEY/FRÉDÉRIC/SALMAGNE

THE ESSENTIALS

BUSSY-RABUTIN CASTLE

rue du château Bussy-le-Grand

Roger de Rabutin, Count of Bussy, a rambunctious nobleman of Louis XIV's court and cousin to Mme de Sévigné, spent his years of exile decorating his family castle. The "corps de logis" (main building dating back to Louis XIII) is flanked by two wings forming a U that was finished in 1649. The wonderful formal French gardens have been restored to their 18th C state, with fountains, hidden nooks, and a maze...

SALMAISE

Medieval village that was important in its time. The castle, the 13th C covered market, and the church with its Roman choir dating back to the 11th C, are all listed historical monuments. 19th C wash-houses and picturesque streets.

GORSLINE MUSEUM 5-8, route d'Étormay, Bussy-le-Grand

A permanent exhibit of the works of the American illustrator and painter Douglas Gorsline (1913-1985) influenced by realism, cubism and chronophotography. Summer exhibition : 2020, comic book year.

FRÔLOIS CASTLE

Built at the beginning of the 11th C. on a rocky spur, the fortified castle conceals behind its austere façade a warm interior where each century has left its mark. Ornamental garden on the terrace.

ST. ANTONIN CHURCH Bussy-le-Grand

On the hillside just opposite the castle, a beautiful Roman church from the 12th C, with sculpted capitals and a roof made of traditional lava stone from the Haut-Auxois region.

ALONG THE WATERSIDE

SOURCE OF THE SEINE RIVER: THIS IS PARIS

The spring of the Seine River attracted Gallo-Roman pilgrims who believed in its healing virtues. A stone statue of the goddess Sequana commemorates this ancient tradition. Today it is the statue of a reclining stone nymph in a cave that was carved out under Napoleon III who greets the visitors.

WASH HOUSE Blessey

Built in 1836 in the countryside, this wash house shaped in a semi-circle has made the hamlet of Blessey renowned. The landscaping of this site was created by the Swiss artist, Rémy Zaugg.

BURGUNDY CANAL

It stretches along 242 kms from Laroche-Migennes to Saint-Jean-de-Losne and has 189 sluices along its course. The harbour of Venarey-Les Laumes is a popular boating stop-over.

TILE FACTORY MUSEUM Les Granges-sous-Grignon

This former factory and pottery houses an exhibit of old machines and tools and of collections of stamped tiles and bricks from different early 20th C. tile manufacturers in Burgundy. Demonstration of the manufacturing of flat roof tiles and old-fashioned floor tiles.

LES GRANGES ESTATE Les Granges-sous-Grignon

The main building of the Granges Estate was built in 1660 and lies at the foot of the hill leading to the village. The dovecote dates back to the 16thC and the outer walls are from the 17th C. The rest of the buildings were part of the farm: bread oven, wine press, barns and a beehive wall.

SOURCE OF THE DOUILX Darcey

An underground cave with a stream, a lake and nearly 800 meters of passages can be found just a few metres from the main source of the Douix.
